Strengthening Public Education: Transitioning NT Government Schools to a Year 7-12 Model

The Northern Territory Council of Government School Organisations (NTCOGSO) welcomes the transition to 7 - 12 high schools as an opportunity to strengthen student learning, wellbeing, and engagement. Ensuring smooth educational pathways is key to supporting student success, and we support changes that deliver the best outcomes for students.

We recognise the importance of a well-planned transition and encourage a strong consultation process where parents and school communities are actively engaged. Families play a vital role in shaping education, and their voices must be valued in this process.

NTCOGSO looks forward to working alongside the Department of Education and Training to ensure this transition is positive, well-supported, and delivers real benefits for students across the Territory.

ABOUT NTCOGSO:

The Northern Territory Council of Government School Organisations (NTCOGSO) is a parent representative body that advocates for the interests of government students and schools across the Northern Territory. NTCOGSO works collaboratively with education stakeholders to support the delivery of high-quality education and ensure the well-being and success of NT students.
