

CONNECTING LEARNING AT HOME AND AT SCHOOL

- Development of kits and resources to help families work with children at home
- Families involved in setting goals for their children's learning (personalised learning plans)
- Cultural activities, including camps, conducted for families and students
- Teachers using student tasks to involve families in student learning
- Students and families work together on projects such as murals, art shows, kitchen gardens and research projects